Guest Lecture on “Employee Attitude and Emotional Intelligence at Work Place”

Organized by

Department of Management Studies

On April 8' 2024

At 11:AM to 1:PM

Speaker

Dr.M. Shanmuga Priya

Associate Head – HR,

ORMAE, Bangalore

The Guest Lecture was delivered by Dr.M.Shanmuga Priya, Associate Head – HR, ORM AE, Bangalore in Falconry Hall addressing all the 3 section students of I year MBA. The topic was chosen to support the subject Management Principles and Organizational Behaviour.

Employee Attitude at Work place

Employee attitude is the positive or negative display of motivation an employee show. It can be displayed toward individual job duties, products or services, coworkers or management, or the organization as a whole in the workplace. Attitudes help to develop the prevailing workplace environment that determines employee morale, productivity and team building abilities. A negative attitude in the workplace creates an atmosphere of distrust among employees and forces employees to achieve success at the expense of each other

Emotional Intelligence at Workplace

Emotionally intelligent employees are also good at being supportive. They can identify when a colleague is upset about a work or personal issue and talk to them in a way that helps reduce stress and allows the other person to cope with the turmoil. Emotional Intelligence (EI) is the ability to manage both your own emotions and understand the emotions of people around you. There are five key elements to EI: self-awareness, self-regulation, motivation, empathy, and social skills. People with high EI can identify how they are feeling, what those feelings mean, and how those emotions impact their behavior and in turn, other people.

We thank our HOD, Dr. Rose Kavitha for arranging such an insightful session for the I year MBA students.

Outbound Training

Organized by

Department of Management
Studies– GPE Students – 2023-25
Batch

On 2nd & 3rd May' 2024

Time : Duration – 2 days

Speaker

Mr. Ajith Selvaraju

N'kisi Institute of Training, Bangalore

The Outbound Training for the Batch 2023-25 was organized on 2nd & 3rd May' 2024 at Triquetra (Aqua Escape), Kannamangala, Chamanahalli, Karnataka. The training was organized for the I Year MBA students. The Trainers were Mr. Ajith Selvaraju, Mr. Mahesh & Mr. Srinivas. The Outbound Training is a technique used to enhance the efficiency of students through Experiential Learning. In other words, taking the group of students away from the actual work environment into the outdoors and are assigned some challenging task or activity that needs to be completed by them within a given time frame.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Helps in improving the teamwork abilities.
- Leadership qualities get enhanced
- Enables in resolving intragroup or personal conflicts
- Nourishes the interpersonal skills
- Nurtures the personal and intragroup relations
- Improves the Communication Skills
- Better partnerships and alliances

EXPECTED OUTCOME

After spending time in an outdoor situation, students tend to bond together in a way that is impossible in the class room atmosphere with its attendant worries and stress. Additionally, in unfamiliar environments and unpredictable situations, stretched beyond their normal comfort zones, people tend to lose their inhibitions, shed their masks, and become more receptive to learning. In the environment thus created, it becomes possible for an experienced facilitator to identify strengths and problem areas, and suggest new coping behavior.

Real Estate Investment:

Zerodha primarily focuses on stock market investments. For real estate investment, investors might consider REITs (Real Estate Investment Trusts) available on the stock market.

About Interest Value:

In the context of trading, the interest value often pertains to the cost of margin trading or the return on investment (ROI). Zerodha provides margin trading facilities where interest is charged on the borrowed amount.

Customer Investments on Underlying Asset Over Past 10 Years:

Zerodha has seen exponential growth, with significant investments in equities, mutual funds, and derivatives by its customers. Detailed historical data might require specific reports or analytics from Zerodha's Console.

Calculation of Investment Using Compounding Method:

The compound interest formula is:

$$A = P(1+r/n)^{nt}$$

Where:

- A is the amount of money accumulated after n years, including interest.
- P is the principal amount (initial investment).
- r is the annual interest rate (decimal).
- n is the number of times that interest is compounded per year.
- t is the time the money is invested for in years.

Portfolio Uses:

A diversified portfolio helps in managing risk and maximizing returns. Zerodha's platforms help users track and manage their portfolios effectively, providing insights into performance and diversification.

Recommended Underlying Assets for Investment:

1. Equities: Shares of companies for potential high returns.
2. Mutual Funds: Diversified investment across various sectors.
3. ETFs (Exchange-Traded Funds): Combining the benefits of mutual funds and stocks.
4. Bonds: For fixed income and lower risk.
5. REITs: For real estate exposure without directly buying properties.

Conclusion

The workshop's interactive format, real-world examples, and graphical analyses enriched the learning experience, fostering a deeper understanding of trading dynamics and investment strategies. Moving forward, participants are encouraged to apply the knowledge and skills acquired during the workshop to enhance their trading proficiency and achieve their financial goals effectively.

We extend our sincere gratitude to Sr. Assistant Professor Dr. Sandhya Ch V L and the Head of the Department Dr. Rose Kavita for orchestrating and facilitating an enlightening workshop on Trading Finance.
