Brief Description	Department of Management Studies celebrated the 69th Kannada on November 6, 2024, honouring Karnataka's foundation with a day of cultural events, rituals, and celebrations. Esteemed guests Ms. Sudha Bargur, a humourist, and Mr. Mimicry Dayanand, a mimicry artist, added a touch of humour and warmth to the event. The program began with a ceremonial lamp lighting, floral tributes, and the Naada Geethe, followed by an energetic Kamsale dance performance. The Principal's address highlighted the importance of preserving Karnataka's heritage. The event also featured folk dances and Kannada songs performed by students, celebrating the state's rich culture. Mrs. Bargur and Mr. Dayanand's humor-filled performances delighted the audience. The day concluded with a vote of thanks and sweet distribution, instilling pride and unity among attendees and showcasing the college's dedication to Karnataka's cultural heritage.  We were delighted that our esteemed Chairman attended and participated in the entire event..
