Faculty Development Program on “Financial Awareness “

Title	Faculty Development Program on “Financial Awareness “
Department	Department of Management Studies
Date	25.01.2025
Time	9.30 AM to 11.30 PM, Falconry Seminar Hall
Speaker Name	Deepak NC- Trainer - NSE Academy
Brief Description	The Department of Management Studies organized a Faculty Development Programme (FDP) on January 25, 2024, led by Deepak NC, a trainer at NSE Academy. The event, which saw 50 registrations from faculty members of various colleges, provided invaluable insights into personal finance and investment options. Deepak NC's presentation covered a wide array of topics, including strategies for saving, spending, and investing money. He discussed various investment avenues such as mutual funds, property, insurance, bank deposits, gold, stocks, and bonds, providing detailed information about each. A significant portion of the session focused on mutual funds, which he highlighted as one of the best investment alternatives, giving attendees a thorough understanding of how they work. He also delved into Systematic Investment Plans (SIPs) and their benefits, stressing the importance of asset allocation that aligns with individual financial goals. In addition to discussing traditional investment instruments such as Fixed Deposits (FDs), Public Provident Fund (PPF), and Post Office Schemes, Deepak NC emphasized investments that grow in value over time as well as those that generate income. Throughout the session, he shared real-life examples that made complex financial concepts relatable and easier to understand. The programme concluded with a Q&amp;A session, where Deepak NC addressed various questions posed by the faculty members, providing clear and thoughtful answers. Overall, the FDP was an enriching experience that significantly enhanced the participants' financial knowledge. It was a highly informative and practical session that will undoubtedly help the faculty make informed decisions regarding personal finance and investments.
