

NEW HORIZON COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

EVENT NAME: Bridging Skill Gap : Know what recruiter look for

DATE : 27th March 2026

VENUE : A-308

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE EVENT:

An insightful alumni talk was delivered by Bollama on the topic “Bridging the Skill Gap: Know What Recruiters Look For.” The session aimed to guide students in aligning their skills with industry expectations and enhancing employability.

The speaker emphasized that beyond academic knowledge, recruiters seek a combination of technical expertise, soft skills, and a proactive attitude. Key skills highlighted included communication, problem-solving, adaptability, and teamwork. The importance of practical exposure through internships, live projects, and certifications was also discussed.

The session provided clarity on how recruiters evaluate candidates during interviews, focusing on confidence, clarity of thought, and real-world application of knowledge. Students were encouraged to build strong resumes, maintain a professional online presence, and continuously upgrade their skills to stay relevant in a competitive job market.

Interactive elements such as Q&A sessions allowed students to address their concerns regarding placements and career growth. Real-life examples shared by the speaker made the session relatable and impactful.

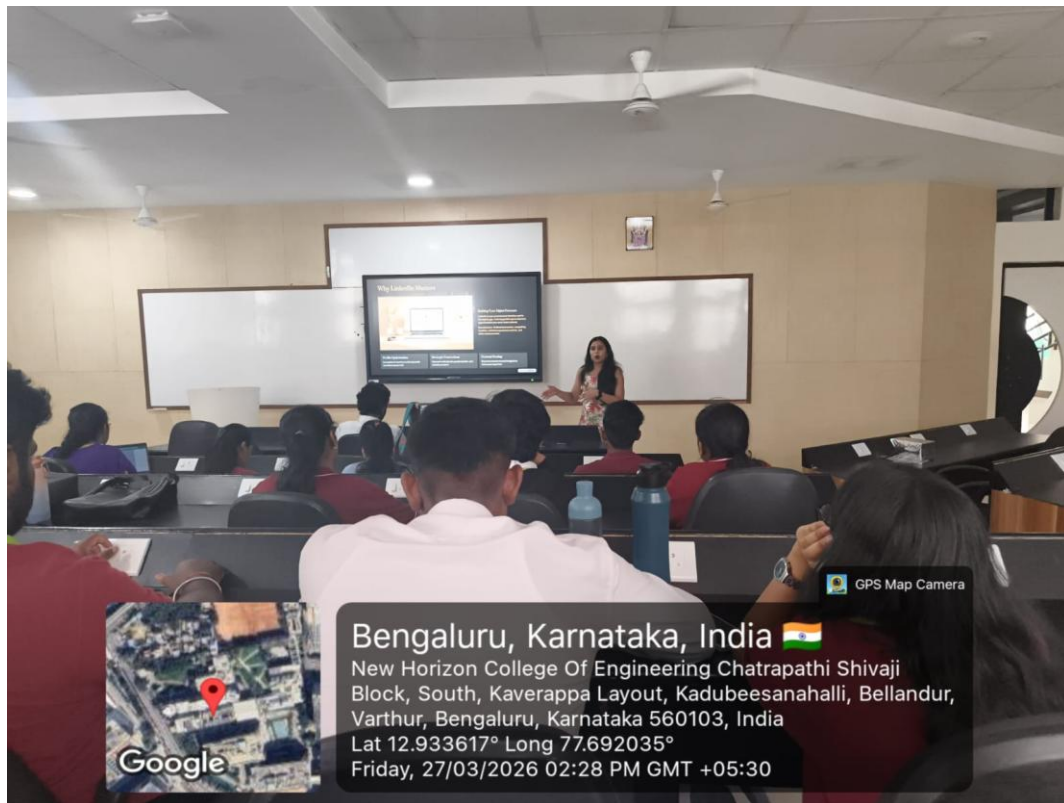

Overall, the talk successfully bridged the gap between academic learning and industry requirements, motivating students to take strategic steps toward career readiness.
